A CORRECTED

Judge Humphreys Instructs That the Deputy Attorney General Was Wrong on Law.

Very little was done in court yesterday. Judge Gear, who returned from the coast via the Mariposa, sat with Judge Humphreys on the bench in the afternoon, while the report of the grand jury was being made, his return and the two appearances of the grand jury being the only incidents of interest during the day, except perhaps, that S. M. Ballou, who was sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment for contempt of court by Judge Humphreys, presented a certified copy of the pardon granted him by Acting Governor Cooper. Judge Humphreys instructed that the same be filed by the clerk.

GRAND JURY. The Grand Jury appeared in Judge Humphreys' court yesterday morning for the purpose of asking permission to withdraw the partial report made the day before, for correction Foreman Carter explained that intained the money.

With this the court returned Tuesthe Grand Jury filed out of the room.

In the afternoon about 3 o'clook the Grand Jury again came into court, this time bringing a report, which Foreman Carter handed to the judge, saying that it was the report returned to him the day before, corrected and with some additional affidavits. He began to enumerate the additional affidavits, but was stopped by the court, who said it was not necessary, and ordered the report placed on the closed

The court then addressed Foreman

"I understand," said the court, "that the Deputy Attorney-General has instructed the Grand Jury that it has no power to indict persons for selling liquor without a license. Is it so, Mr. Car-

Mr. Carter said that such was the

"So understood," said the court, "! was not formally advised to that effect, but received the information informally. I desire to instruct you that you do have the power to indict persons for selling liquor without a license, or for any other violation of the law, from the highest to the lowest, and it is not only a power of the Grand Jury. but the duty of the Grand Jury, to investigate such infringements and to indict if the evidence so warrants."

J. F. Colburn, a member of the Grand Jury, addressed the court, and desired to know whether the Grand Jury should, upon a majority vote so to do, visit, for the purpose of investigation, such public institutions as the Oahu Prison, the Insane Asylum, etc.

The court instructed in the affirmative, saying that such investigations were the duty of the Grand Jury.

Foreman Carter said that with the permission of the court, the Grand Jury would next proceed to take up the bills for indictment, which would be furnished it by the Attorney-General, leaving the bribery matter as it stood for the present.

Judge Humphreys directed that this be done, and the jurymen filed out, COURT NOTES.

ANTEDATES CIVILIZATION.

Before civilized man had heard or dreamed of it, Kickapoo Indian Oil was healing the wounds, relieving and cur-ing the aches and pains of the Red Man. Before civilized man had heard of it, it kept the natives in perfect health. And since civilized man has known it, the category of cures has become voluminous. No other medicine has made such cures, because Kickapoo Indian Oil is nature's remedy, and nature stands back of it. Your druggist has it, or can get it. Insist on getting the genuine Kickapoo Indian Oil. Hobron Drug Company, agents for Kickapoo Indian Remedies.
